WS Morant Wright Nippon Yield Fund January 2024 Newsletter

£ Returns	Month	2023	Since Inception (1 st October 2008)
B Accumulation	+3.8%	+18.9%	+564.9%
TOPIX Net Total Return	+3.7%	+12.3%	+206.5%

Sources: Bloomberg and Waystone Management (UK) Limited

TOPIX started the year strongly by rising 7.8% in yen terms, despite the devastation of the Noto Earthquake which hit Japan on New Year's Day. Larger companies led the increase with the TOPIX Core 30 index up by almost 10% while the TOPIX Mid 400 rose by just over 5%. At least 233 people died in the earthquake and a few of our companies suffered damage to local factories, although Noto Airport had re-opened by the end of the month.

Individual investors have shown more interest in Japanese equities following a rise in the tax-exempt allowance for Nippon Individual Savings Accounts (NISAs). The annual limit for these investment accounts has tripled to a total of ¥3.6m ($25,000) from 1st January, and their tax-free status has been made permanent. According to the Nikkei newspaper, NISA purchases of equities through the leading online brokerages reached $3bn in the first two weeks of January, almost three times the record for a single month. NISA applications have also doubled compared to last year.

As widely expected, the Bank of Japan kept monetary policy unchanged in its January meeting. The next meeting in March will be held as companies carry out their annual wage negotiations. The Japanese Business Federation has called for an increase of at least 5%, which would exceed last year's rise. Demand for new graduates in particular is very strong, resulting in starting salaries increasing by 16% at Dai-ichi Life and 25% at SMFG. Interestingly, the Ministry of Health, Labour and Welfare has just released its report on wages in 2023. This showed that smaller companies raised pay by 3.4% last year, reflecting the tight labour market.

Announcements by the Tokyo Stock Exchange are still having a positive effect on share prices, as we have highlighted before. In January, the TSE published its first list of companies that have issued plans to improve their valuations. Within the TOPIX Prime market, 40% of companies have so far announced strategies and the list will be updated monthly. Although the hurdle rate to be included is low, the TSE intends to publish examples of good and bad plans to help improve understanding. Within our portfolio, over half of our companies have announced plans to improve their valuation. Almost all of these strategies include quantitative targets for ROE and shareholder returns, and often a reduction in cross-shareholdings as well. We continue to engage with our companies on these issues.

We were encouraged to see Canon Marketing Japan, a Canon hardware distributor and IT solutions company held in the portfolio, raise its dividend payout ratio from 30% to 40% after our numerous engagements with management, including voting against directors at the last three AGMs and writing to management each time to explain our concerns. Given that Canon Marketing currently has net cash and investments worth close to 50% of its market cap, there is still a long way to go and we will continue to urge the company to keep raising return on equity.

The TSE initiative continues to have other consequences. After the raft of MBOs in late 2023, two more companies have announced plans to go private. Aoki Super and Payroll are both small companies but are being bought out at premiums of around 40%. Elsewhere, Fuji Soft, a software development company with a market cap of $3bn, confirmed that it had received "multiple" offers to be bought. Fuji Soft had previously set up a privatisation panel to consider its future as a listed company.

Despite rising share prices, our companies still have substantial net cash and investments worth an average of 43% of market cap (ex-financials) which gives them considerable scope to continue raising dividends and buy back shares. The TSE measures and ongoing shareholder pressure have combined to help focus management attention on improving returns.
